College freshman Betty Whitaker started Girls Guild in 1939.

For the Outdoors award in Girls Guild, you would have had to build a campfire. You would have had to light it with only two matches. No paper allowed.

In 1941 Carol Erickson changed the club name to Pioneer Girls®. She added themes of pioneering and adventure.

In the '70s, T-shirts became the Pioneer Clubs uniform.

Boys joined Pioneer Clubs® in 1981.

In 1999, for the third and fourth grade Pathfinder Writer award, you could have finished this story: Lee wanted a baby zebra—or even a mongoose. But his mother kept saying no.

Pioneer Clubs started a Facebook page in 2008.
