

Talking Points

1. What is unique about Pioneer Clubs in comparison to other children's ministry programs?
2. How have children changed over the years? How has Pioneer Clubs compensated for these changes?
3. What are the greatest needs of children today?
4. How does Pioneer Clubs work with different learning styles and abilities of children?
5. How does a children's ministry program benefit a church?
6. Why are children and youth important age-groups to target in ministry?
7. What are the challenges that children's ministries face?
8. Why is Pioneer Clubs not just another activity to fill a child's schedule?
9. How does a program that focuses on the "simple things," such as group games and activities, compete in a kid's world filled with hi-tech video games and self-indulgence?
